AUTOMATED INVESTMENT INTELLIGENCE

Get an edge on the competition with DDIQ’s market-leading automated research tool. DDIQ’s intelligent technology simplifies qualitative research by rapidly extracting and presenting key information on both companies and people. In a world demanding real-time intelligence, DDIQ is the cornerstone of all successful investments.

All Due Diligence Begins with DDIQ

For critical decisions, investment professionals turn to DDIQ to trust that everything is evaluated while nothing is missed.

Complete Profiles In Minutes
Quickly uncover the facts that matter most at the onset of an investment opportunity. Research can be slow, cumbersome, and costly. DDIQ’s automated decision engine returns actionable results in near real-time, enabling cost-effective intelligence to be run (and re-run) anytime.

Aggregate Actionable Information
DDIQ’s comprehensive search harnesses open-source intelligence and taps into deep web data that standard search engines are unable to access. Gain a richer understanding of all relationships through a dynamic investigative interface that ensures even intentionally buried information is uncovered.

Monitor On-Demand
Easily detect major developments that impact your targets, portfolio companies or management teams. DDIQ’s “Compare” feature refreshes profile results and highlights important changes that may require you to take action.

One Click Away from Real-Time Intelligence
Spend less time gathering information and more time making high-value decisions with DDIQ.
